WANTED TO RENT, a small DWELLING HOUSE, in any part of the city. Address Q. Z., at the Gazette office. oct 6—1w†

[COMMUNICATED.]

The O. & A. R. R. require prepayment of all freights at all points this side of Lynchburg—but from Baltimore the freights are collected at points of delivery. This arrangement is prejudicial to Alexandria merchants, and I would call the attention of the Railroad managers to it, as it is a discrimination against Alexandria. The through freight trains to and from Baltimore is a serious blow to our interest, and this arrangement is an other.

THEATRE.—A most unwarrantable, uncalled for, and low-flung assault upon Miss Wood was made in a paper published in this place, yesterday afternoon. Fair criticism on the performance of an actress is not objected to, especially when expressed in decent language—but when a female is grossly insulted, that is another thing; and such a proceeding must receive the condemnation of every gentleman. What the cause could have been for this outrage, in thus speaking of a lady, the writer of this will leave to the judgment of a respectable public, merely remarking that men sometimes do acts under temporary excitement, they would not do in their sober moments. The name of the writer of this, is at the service of the person who wrote the piece alluded to, for any further proceedings. [It*] G.
